

What is the Introductory to Sign Language Interpretation?

This is an introductory course in Sign Language Interpretation and it will cover the development of Signing Exact English (SEE) and its application within the Deaf Community including medical aspects of hearing loss, communication and language, and Deaf culture and community. This is compulsory module for students who wished to pursue a Sign Language Interpretation competency certification awarded by the Association.

Why become a Sign Language Interpreter with us?

Demands for Sign Language Interpreter Service have been growing through out the year. You will be carrying on the legacy of a group of students from Sign Language class in the 1980s who first volunteered their acquired skills . By joining us as a Sign Language Interpreter, not only will you learn additional communication techniques, broaden your horizons, meet interesting people in some unusual circumstance. You will also be bringing people closer together.
